Crash Cart Management Simplified

Crash cart medication management - save time, money and risk of expired medications

- Medications offered in unit dose - save money and wasted product

- Expiration monitoring with auto-replenishment service - reduce labor costs of monitoring and reordering medications

- Online dashboard of medication status in each cart, across all facilities - for compliance and audits

- Quickly view expiration dates, serial and lot numbers and national backorder information for medications

Scan QR Code for more information and download the case study.

HealthFirst